Daylight Music Productions and The Academy of Music and Sound are proud to announce a new series of paid apprenticeships in music business for young people aged 16-19.

I am writing to let you know that Daylight Music Productions are once again looking to recruit apprentices in Scotland. These apprenticeships in music business provide successful applicants with 16 hours of paid work experience per week with Daylight Music Productions. Apprentices will work in a range of areas of the music business, including, A&R, marketing, sponsorship, royalties and live event promotion. In addition to this work experience training will also be give by Kelvin College and The Academy of Music and Sound to help apprentices achieve an EDI Level 3 qualification.

I would be extremely grateful if you would be able to pass on the information about this opportunity to any of the young people that you work with who may be interested. If you would like any further information please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Interviews will take place in December and the apprenticeship will begin in January. To submit an application please send a CV and covering letter to dmpedinburgh@daylightmusicproductions.com.

Yours

Sarah Quinn
