Learning intention

- I will explore and challenge my views about jobs

Success criteria

- I can discuss my views about jobs along with my peers and show respect for other people's opinions

Quickly write down your observations about this person's career path to share with the class.

Construction supervisor

After school Tracey had a few different jobs, including office junior, hotel receptionist and gym instructor.

She was made redundant and found an opportunity to do an apprenticeship in joinery. She's now training to be a construction manager.

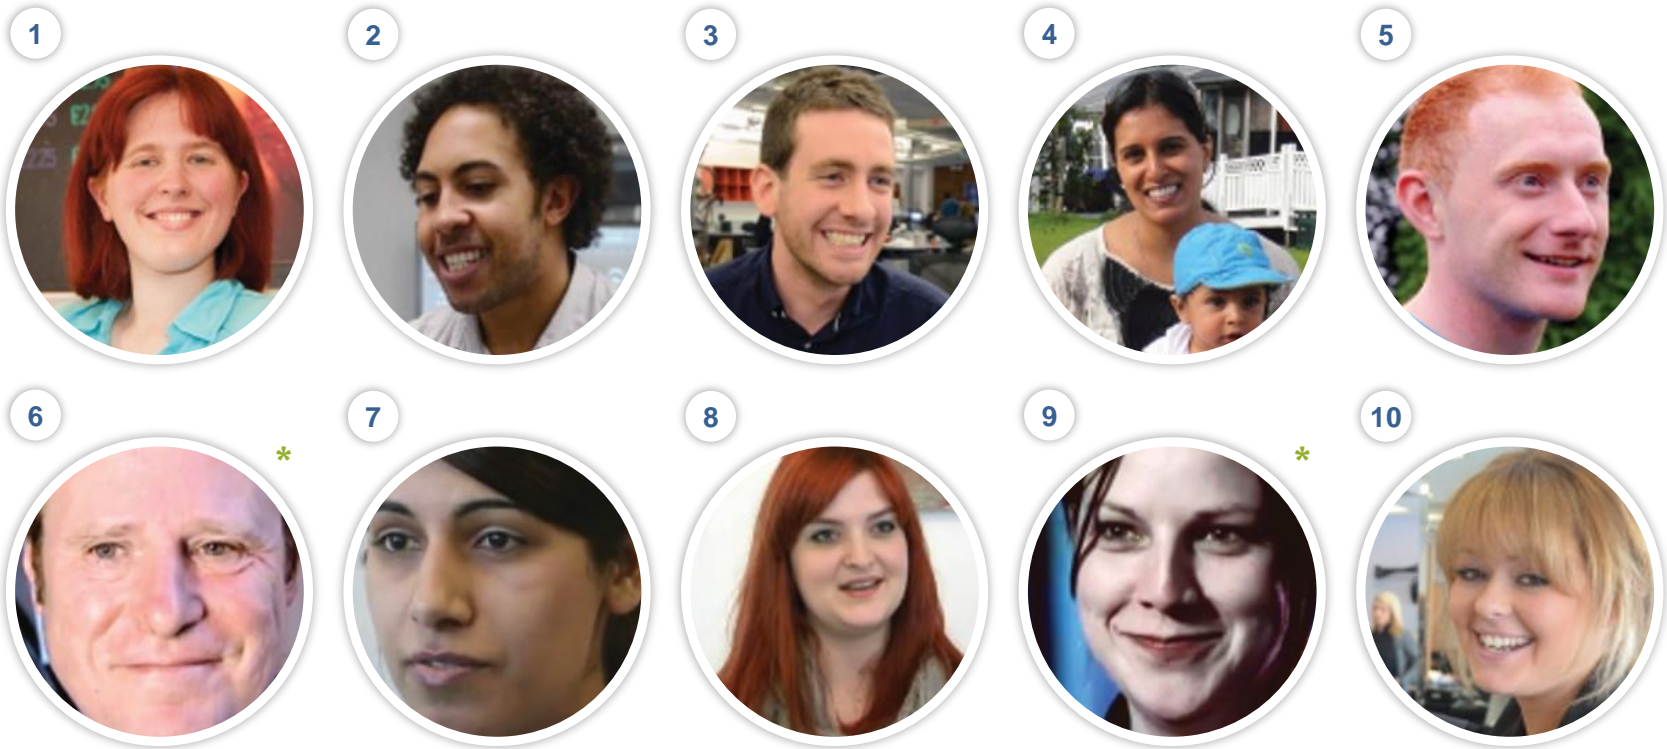

'If being indoors is not for you then I think construction would be ideal,' says Tracey.

Discussion

- Did you match the correct pictures to the job titles?
- Are you surprised by the results?
