Introduction

Community Learning and Development Services are offering children and young people a range of social and recreational opportunities. All programmed activities are planned to take place during school term time. There is a maximum limit on the number of participants for each programme. If Children and young people are registered from the Jan-March term they will keep their place for the April-June term. New registrations can be taken.

Registration & Programme Costs

To take part in any of our programmes, all children must be registered. Registration forms can be obtained from Port Seton Centre reception.

The cost of taking part in our programme of activities ranges from £1.00-£2.00 per session. In some cases, the fee includes a small snack.
