

The Brig and Barrel are looking for any pupils who are interested in the food industry to give them the chance of taking up a long-term work placement through the Modern Apprentice program.

They are looking to recruit energetic, practically minded school leavers looking to embark on a modern apprenticeship through a partnership between themselves and Babcock International. This would start with learning the kitchen basics prior to completing an SVQ in Hospitality on site at The Brig and Barrel.

Candidates must be willing to work hard, be reliable, honest and committed to learning.
