Role: Store Assistant - Days
Company: Asda
Location: Tranent

About the Role

There's a role for everyone in retail - from serving our customers, perfecting pizzas, unpacking deliveries or filling shelves. Wherever you are, we put our customers first with excellent service, welcoming stores and 'extra special' products – we work as a team to maximise sales and deliver a great shopping trip.

We'll help you to become a star colleague from learning about food safety to making sure our customers are served with a smile. If you're looking for flexible working or a chance to develop in retail, this could be the role for you!

We'll work with you on your shifts, but the chances are you'll have to work some evenings and weekends and we may need to be flexible with your work pattern – there's something to suit everyone.

About You

You'll be naturally friendly and want to get stuck in, working with your team to deliver great results. You'll have an enthusiastic approach to learning new skills across different departments. You care about giving customers a great shopping experience, helping them find what they need and having a chat along the way.

Your Benefits

Alongside a competitive salary, you'll get lots of other great benefits too, including 10% off your Asda shopping, incentive schemes, a pension scheme, bonus scheme and discounts across a range of services and activities, from airport parking to theme parks and cinemas.

Role: Customer Assistant
Company: Coop
Location: Prestonpans

Pay: £9.50 per hour & amazing benefits.
No experience needed as full training given

Working pattern: 3 varied shifts over 7 days including afternoons from 2pm, late evenings till 10pm and weekends, to be discussed at interview

What you'll do as a Customer Assistant

There's lots involved in being a Co-op customer assistant. The pace is always fast, with different duties to take on through your shift. Here are some of the key tasks:

- providing friendly, considerate customer service (and really getting to know customers)
- preparing and presenting our products, including from the bakery
- keeping the store well stocked and looking good
- thinking on your feet if there's an issue or problem to solve
- help out on the post office counter
- promoting Co-op membership, and the local projects we support

Who can be a Customer Assistant at Co-op?

We're not looking for any specific experience or qualifications – we provide full training. It's your personality, skills, motivation and values that matter. You'll need to show us:

- a real passion for customer service
- great communication and listening skills
- the ability to work well in a team, and achieve team and individual goals
- an enthusiastic approach and willingness to support your colleagues when the store gets busier
- the flexibility to work a range of shifts to support the opening times of the store

Please note, you must be aged 18 or over to be a Co-op customer assistant, as it requires working before 6am or after 10pm, or involves working in one of our Petrol Forecourts.

We're actively building diverse teams and welcome applications from everyone. We want to create an inclusive environment, where we can all celebrate our differences, contribute our best work and develop to our full potential.

Our stores are open when our customers need us, so we need candidates to be flexible of when they're willing to work. At interview, we'll ask you to provide additional times for when you can work during the week, we call this preferred availability.

As part of your application, you'll need to complete a 20-minute online assessment.

We can make reasonable adjustments to our interview process according to your needs. You can find out more about our people policies at coop.co.uk/peoplepolicies.

If you're successful in your application, you might occasionally be required to work in other stores within the local area to cover colleague absence.
