Company: Action for Children
Location: Haddington
Role: Housing Support Practitioner

Hours: Full-time (37 hours per week)
Salary: £25,500 per year
Closing date: 22nd September 2023

Wherever you work in the Action for Children family, you'll be helping to change the lives of the most vulnerable children in the UK.

Our housing support and care at home service currently supports one young person to continue to live in their own home in their community. We provide full-time care and support on a 2:1 basis for a young lady with learning disabilities who at times can present behaviours that challenge.

We do this by supporting her in her daily routines, assisting her with personal care and medication. The young lady we support has an absolute zest for life and likes to be as busy as possible. We always have a plan and are off out on adventures, walks, swimming, surfing and out and about to local parks and trying new things.

Company: Action for Children
Location: Haddington
Role: Housing Support Practitioner Nights

Hours: Full-time (37 hours per week, night shifts)
Salary: £24,650 per year
Closing date: 27th September 2023

New Horizons provides residential housing support to young people; aged 16-25 years referred by East Lothian Housing Department as homeless or threatened with homelessness. The Service seeks to support young people to prepare for more independent living working with residents on a range of issues e.g. emotional support, budgeting, food preparation and safe storage, household chores and practical skills, managing neighbourhood relations and disputes, accessing specialist services and employability.

We are looking for a Housing Support Practitioner who can engage with young people providing structured and focused housing support to assist young people to gain the skills to live more independently or sustain their accommodation in the community. This support may be provided as a 1:1 or as small, focused group work.
