

Literacy P7 Home Learning Grid

Tools for Writing (Grammar)

Hunt for colons: and semi-colons; in books, magazines and online articles. Find at least 3 examples of each and write them down. Can you create your own examples?

Story Writing:

Visit the Pobble365 website and write a short story each day using the picture stimulus or write a longer story over the week. Edit and improve as you go.

Talking & Listening:

Design your own chocolate bar. What is it made of and what makes it special? Who would buy it? Make a short 1- 2 minute talk and present to someone at home.

Handwriting:

How many different words can you create out of this author's name: Jacqueline Wilson? Write your words in cursive. For a challenge put them in sentences,

Diary Writing:

Keep a diary each day. Maybe write a few pages about what you did, or even just a sentence to highlight the best thing about your day. Don't forget to illustrate it.

Letter Writing:

Choose a friend/ family member or somebody in your community who would appreciate a letter. Write to them and include as much information as possible.

Instruction Writing:

Use an activity that you are doing at home e.g. cooking, baking. Write instructions for how you did this. This could be making a cup of tea, teaching a sibling a skill.

Poetry:

Research a poet e.g. Michael Rosen, Robert Burns and write your own poem inspired by something you have read.

Newspaper Writing:

Watch Newsround and create a newspaper article based on what you have heard. It could just be based on what has happened in your house.

Play script Writing:

Create a play for you and your family to act out. Make sure you add in stage directions etc.

Story Writing:

Research Japanese Storytelling (Kamishibai). You can use a shoebox to create a different setting for each part of the story. You could always make puppets!

Write a tweet:

Watch Newsround and write a 140 character tweet about what you've heard.

Spelling:

Write down ten words you would be unsure of how to spell from your book. Write these words in a story or make a mini dictionary with their meanings.

Tools for Writing (Grammar)

Using apostrophes for singular and plural nouns. Write 5 silly sentences which all use apostrophes.

Presentation:

Present your country booklet to your family or read it to someone. Share your favourite parts of it.

Script Writing:

Write a script for your own movie idea. Remember when writing a script to put character name on the left, directions and actions in brackets (whispers) (moves away)