BOOK OF THE WEEK

Following in the footsteps of many of our young people this week, I've been re-reading for comfort, and my book of the week is a personal favourite. Quiet: The Power of Introverts in a World That Can't Stop Talking by Susan Cain. Exploring the introvert/extrovert divide, personality and brain chemistry, this is a well-researched, thought-provoking piece of work. It definitely had an impact on me the first time I read it and that impact is not diminished with re-reading. What have you been reading this week? Share on the library Google Classroom xgxyhat
