

S3 Geography - Homework Grid

Unit	Task	Resources	Due date
Weather	UK air masses Identify two of the UK's air masses Describe the problems and benefits of a selected air mass in the summer	UK air mass map	16.09.14
Climate Change	Extreme weather event project Produce a project in pairs on a selected recent extreme weather event (i.e. floods)	PowerPoint on pupil server (project instructions)	23.10.14
Population	Population structure Watch documentary on population change and write a summary linking the information to in class learning	http://www.gapminder.org/videos/dont-panic-the-facts-about-population/#.VC2V7DpATMw	Nov '14
Population	Extended essay on China's one child policy 'Was the Chinese government right to introduce a one child policy?'	Information on pupil server Planning worksheet given in class	Dec '14
Glaciation	Cairngorms Information booklet Create an information booklet on the Cairngorms National Park (including information on how glacial features formed)	PowerPoint on pupil server (booklet instructions)	Jan '15
Coasts	Watch YouTube clip on Coasts Watch video clip and write a summary of the information	http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hOm_ZPRzi8E	Feb '15
Landscape conflicts	Decision Making Exercise How do we allow different land users to carry out their own activities fairly without coming into conflict with others?	Resources given in class	March '15
British Farming	Investigation into local farms Using research skills to investigate different local farms types. Create a poster with the information collected.	Information on pupil server Planning worksheet given in class	April '15
Trade	Fairtrade campaign Why should we trade fairly?	Information on pupil server	May '15

Monthly homework tasks will be supplemented with exam style questions.

Homework help will be available:

Monday lunchtime

Thursday 3.45 – 5pm