Q. 2 In SOURCE A Anne O'Donnell from Govan, who was active in the Glasgow Women's Housing Association in 1915, describes how evictions were stopped.

SOURCE A

We used everything from drums, bells, trumpets and anything that could be used as a warning sound to bring the women out, as the men were at work in the yards and factories. We would cram into closes and stairs to block the Sheriff's officers and prevent them from carrying out their evictions. We also threw little paper bags of flour and whiting at the bowler hatted officers. On the 17th of November 1915 there was massive demonstration and a march of thousands through the city streets and on to the Glasgow Sheriff's Court.

Q.2 Evaluate the usefulness of SOURCE A as evidence about the Glasgow rent strikes during the Great War.

Q. Describe the Spartacist revolt of 1919 in Germany.

5 marks

SOURCE A is part of the reply by the head of the German delegation to the terms of the Treaty of Versailles.

We know that we are defeated and powerless. We know that our armed forces have not the strength left to defend us. We know also the hatred that we must face...and we have heard the victorious powers insist that we must be made to pay, and as the guilty ones we must be punished. We are forced to admit that Germany alone is to blame for the war. I cannot bring myself to confess to such a wicked lie.

Q.2 How fully does SOURCE A explain German resentment of the Treaty of Versailles? (Use SOURCE A and recall)
