Role: Apprentice Painter and Decorator

Company: Hamill Decorating Services

Location: Musselburgh

Salary: £7 to £9.50 per hour (depending on age)

Hours: Full time (38 hours per week, Monday to Friday)

Hamill Decorating is a family run decorating company based in Musselburgh. Their mission is to deliver outstanding decorating services to all of their customers all of the time. They work mostly in Edinburgh and the Lothians but do, on occasion travel further. They work with interior designers and builders on large refurbishment projects, and also with a window renovation company and paint a lot of sash and case windows each year.

Key Tasks:

- To learn how to become a painter and decorator up to NVQ level2 by attending site each day and working alongside a qualified tradesperson.
- Supporting that tradesperson by helping with preparation, painting and customer service.
- Working in different properties and learning all aspects of decorating from painting walls and woodwork to eventually hanging designer wallpapers.

You must currently be unemployed. Preferable 21 or over.

Application process:

- Email your C.V. to admin@hamilldecorating.com
- You will be invited for an informal interview which will concentrate on getting to know you, your interests and why you want to be a painter and decorator.
- A decision will be made after all applicants have been interviewed. We will aim to have the whole process completed as quickly as possible.

Role: Development Worker

Company: Dementia Friendly Musselburgh

Location: Musselburgh (mixture of home working and travel within East Lothian)

Salary: £20,000 - £27,374 per year (depending on experience)

Hours: Full time - Flexible (35 hours per week)

Closing date: Wednesday 17th August 5pm

Dementia Friendly East Lothian and the Musselburgh Area Partnership share a vision of Musselburgh as a place where people living with dementia and unpaid carers are valued and respected members of our community.

Your role is to:

- Promote and support the development of Musselburgh as a Dementia Friendly Community
- Ensure people living with dementia and unpaid carers/supporters are full, active and equal participants, including as volunteers.
- Work in partnership with the Musselburgh Health and Well-being Group, Connected Communities and VCEL to identify and deliver actions that tangibly improve lives and develop volunteering
- Organise and run events, activities and communications that inspire and support our aspirations for Musselburgh and which build strong and enabling relationships across and within the community, all ages
- Manage the project and required reporting and any financial monitoring.

About you:

We are looking for the right person for this challenging and rewarding post/project, so there are no essential qualifications. Where the successful candidate requires training, this will be provided free, in work time as part of the post.

We positively welcome applications from people living with dementia and unpaid carers/supporters and people with a wide range of experience, relevant to the requirements of the job.

We're looking for someone who:

- Shares our values and aspirations for Musselburgh
- Is positive, creative and flexible
- Likes to work with people and teams, valuing diversity and ensuring everyone is included and valued
- Has excellent time management and organisation skills.
- Is self-motivated and works with minimal supervision
- Is committed to equality and inclusion and rights

You should have at least 2 years relevant experience and be able to demonstrate skills in some or all aspects of the post.

This is a six month fixed term contract. Also open to applicants who are interested in doing the work freelance or as a project.

Role: School Subject Tutors

Company: ELTI Tutoring Initiative, Queen Margaret University, Edinburgh

Location: Mid and East Lothian

In response to the educational challenges faced by young people due to COVID-19, the ELTI Tutoring Initiative was set up to help 4th - 6th year students who were due to complete N4, N5 and Higher assessments in the spring of 2021.

Due to ongoing disruption to schooling experienced in the past two years, this provision is being extended to cover pupils in the coming exam cohort (2022/23). Eligible pupils from 7 high schools in Mid and East Lothian will be invited to take part in weekly tutoring sessions over a 10-week period, either pre- or post-Christmas. Tutors will be allocated to one of the council areas and will be required to deliver both online and in-person. In-person training will take place prior to commencement of the tutoring starting in September 2022.

Tutors will have achieved a Higher in the subject to be tutored, and subsequently completed a degree or equivalent (not necessarily in the same subject).

Tutors should be able to demonstrate the following qualities:

- Well organised and able to solve problems.
- Patient and willing to adapt when required.
- Able to develop relationships with a diverse group of people.
- Creative and innovative.

The initiative is being hosted and co-ordinated by Queen Margaret University, funders include the STV Children's Appeal

For informal enquiries and to request an application pack, please email elti@gmu.ac.uk

The closing date for applications is 5pm on Friday 12th August 2022.

Interviews will be held week commencing 22nd August 2022.
