Role: The Archerfield Young Chefs Certificate of Excellence Award

Location: Archerfield Clubhouse, Direlton, East Lothian EH39 5HQ

Start Date: September 2022

Positions: 6 available

Duration: 2 years apprenticeship

Hourly rate: £8 an hour, full-time

Employment Guarantee: all graduates are guaranteed a position within our parent company, Caledonian Heritable, who also run establishments such as the Dome in Edinburgh.

The Archerfield Young Chefs Certificate of Excellence Award is being set up to educate, train and position young people in the industry giving the opportunity to grow into a talented chef.

The industry in Scotland is incredibly diverse with fantastic opportunities utilising some of the best quality ingredients in the world. Right now there is a huge shortage of talented chefs within Scotland providing an exciting opportunity for those looking for an excellent education and career.

The programme will run in conjunction with Edinburgh College and will be a fully accredited City & Guilds course. The six successful applicants will be given 'real-time' experiences and the opportunity to work in several different environments.

You will learn from some of the most talented chefs in Scotland within a custom built, state-of-the-art facility inside the Archerfield Clubhouse providing the perfect teaching environment. With dedicated areas for food preparation, meat preparation, cooking, and pastry, students will be able to hone their skills with everything they need.
