

If you are a family who supports a child with Autism, Steps Family Pathway Project can help to support you. With funding from the Scottish Government, we are able to offer a variety of FREE workshops and drop in sessions to families in East Lothian, Midlothian and South/East Edinburgh throughout March in Musselburgh East Community Learning Centre, Haddington Road, Musselburgh EH21 8JJ

FREE Parent Workshops

5 informal workshops covering aspects of Autism such as using visuals, communication, social interactions and sensory sensitivity.

Introduction/Using Visuals – Wednesday 4th March 6.30pm-8.30pm
Communication and Emotions – Monday 9th March 9.30am-11.30am
Social Interactions – Monday 16th March 9.30am-11.30am
Sensory Sensitivity – Monday 23rd March 6.30pm-8.30pm
Challenging Behaviour – Monday 30th March 9.30pm-11.30pm

FREE Parent Drop in sessions

4 drop in sessions giving you a chance to make visual prompts for your child including visual timetables and social stories.

Drop In 1 – Friday 6th March 9.30am-11.30am
Drop In 2 – Wednesday 11th March 6.30pm-8.30pm
Drop In 3 – Thursday 19th March 9.30am-11.30am
Drop In 4 – Wednesday 25th March 6.30pm-8.30pm

FREE Sibling Workshops

An opportunity for siblings to get together to share experiences, take part in crafts and other activities and understand a little more about Autism.

Session 1 – Thursday 5th March 6.30pm-8pm
Session 2 – Thursday 12th March 6.30pm-8pm
Session 3 – Thursday 19th March 6.30pm-8pm
Session 4 – Tuesday 31st March 6.30pm-8pm

To reserve a place, e mail us on enquiries@stepstoinclude.com
Or telephone Caroline 07727 190520 or Kirsten 07706 615745