Kidzone

A parent support group

& playgroup

for children with

additional support needs

What is Kidzone?

Kidzone is a parent support group and playgroup for pre-school aged children who have additional needs.

There are currently three groups- two in Tranent and one in Dunbar.

Kidzone is run by a parent management committee along with the pre-school outreach teacher.

What we do at Kidzone?

Learn through play with fun activities and toys set up in a comfortable play room.

Healthy fun snack time in a group setting with other children and parents. Coffee/tea and chat and mutual support from other parents.

Access to the sensory equipment room and soft play rooms.

Music sessions with songs and musical instruments.

Visits within East Lothian and Edinburgh e.g. East Links Family Park, river walks in Haddington, Barge trips at Ratho with the Seagull Trust.

Various visitors and guest speakers

The Pre-School

Outreach Teacher runs the Tranent group each week offering parents support and ideas. Homestart volunteers support parents and children each week at all Kidzone sessions and join in with the fun.
