

The University of Edinburgh Teacher Education Partnership

Teaching Scotland's Future Legacy Event

Saturday 5th September 2015

Paterson's Land G1, Moray House School of Education

The event will focus on the influence of Teaching Scotland's Future and the work of the Teacher Education Partnership. Guest speakers are Graham Donaldson, Rowena Arshad and Peter McNaughton.

Topics will include:

- What's in it for teachers?
- What are the opportunities to progress teachers' learning, activism and agency?
- What difference does this make to the learners?
- How can teachers' inform and shape policy?
- How can TSF develop teacher agency?

The conference is FREE for teachers from the six partner authorities: Fife, Midlothian, Edinburgh, West Lothian, East Lothian and Scottish Borders Councils and Booking is essential.

To book a place at this conference and for further information please go to: <http://mhse.me/legacy2015>

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

The University of Edinburgh Teacher Education Partnership

Local Legacy Event Conference

Saturday 5th September 2015 10am - 2.30pm

Room G 1 Paterson's Land, Moray House School of Education, the University of Edinburgh

- 9.30 Coffee and Registration
- 10.00 Welcome
- 10.10 Professor Graham Donaldson
Teaching Scotland's Future: What's different for Teachers?
- 11.10 Dr Rowena Arshad, Co-Chair UoE TEP
The UoE TEP priorities and progress
- 11.20 Café Style Conversations 1,
- 12.00 Lunch
- 12.45 Café Style Conversations 2
- 13.30 Meet in Local Authority Groups
- 1400-14.30 Peter McNaughton, Co-Chair UoE TEP

THE UNIVERSITY
of EDINBURGH

