

Creative Conversations

Creative Learning Network 2015/16

| Date | Creative Catalysts | I Did it My Way Sorry about the clichéd title! | Time | venue |
|---|---|---|--|---|
| Friday 17th June 2016 | Hywel Roberts Debra Kidd Lisa Ashes Will Ryan Ian Gilbert With David Cameron Welcome by Andy Gray | We are celebrating the publication of "There is another way", a collection of essays by some of the finest educational thinkers around. AND.... some of the best of them are joining us for a Creative Conversation – which might have a bit of a party feel about it! The legendary Hywel Roberts with his unique combination of irresistible wit, charm and practical ideas. He's never had a bad review and if you don't enjoy him we check you for a pulse. We are also bringing back Debra Kidd, a huge success on her last visit. She's a brilliant trainer rooted in practice with huge intellectual depth and big ideas. Joining them is Lisa Ashes who has worked with Pedagogoo and literacy coordinators. She delivers superb workshops and leaves you with ideas that you can take and use in classrooms the very next day. Bringing a bit of gravitas we have Will Ryan, one of the best leadership trainers you will hear. Finally, Ian Gilbert, who runs Independent Thinking, a leading, inspiring and influential consultancy. He's a successful author in his own right, but he will be in the role of ringmaster!! Google them and be amazed that you can see them for nothing and get lunch, wine and nibbles. Not only will this remarkable collection of presenters do it their way, they will give you the confidence, courage, conviction to do it your way - as well as the tools to make it work. | 1.00 - 2.00 lunch 2.00 – 4.30 Creative Conversation PARTY! 4.30 onwards for wine and nibbles | The Hub Castlehill, Royal Mile EH1 2NE |